Selected Student: Amy Malone

Submitted by: Paloma Arnold

When Amy returned to SBCC in 2017 through the EOPS SPARC program, her fierce commitment to forge a pathway to self-sufficiency through education, recovery, faith and growth was evident.

In addition to being an incredible single mother, Amy is an exceptional student and she exhibits a genuine and intrinsic desire to be of service to others; She often agrees to public speaking engagements and she is deeply engaged in the recovery community not just locally, but on a statewide level as well. As a CalWORKs student, Amy is employed through the off-campus CalWORKs Work Study Program where her work performance is exemplary. Amy Malone is genuine, kind, hard-working, and carries herself with the utmost grace. She is truly an inspiration to those around her. Amy will be graduating with Honors this spring and plans to transfer as an Economics major to UCSB or CalPoly in the fall.
